Remarks:

Red: Attached for your information is a copy of the agreement with the Air Force for the additional procurement from Lockheed under AQUATONE. It has now been signed by [REDACTED] and I believe is a satisfactory arrangement. One problem which has concerned us has been the negotiation of a contract with Hycon as one of the suppliers to this procurement. The concern arose out of the fact that [REDACTED] who sparked this project for the Air Force, has resigned and is now President of Hycon. This raised a policy question which we have studied at length. Attached also is my memorandum on this subject, which comes to the conclusion that in consideration of all the aspects the procurement from Hycon is necessary and not objectionable. I would appreciate your reaction to my conclusion. If you agree, I will send it on to Bissell for permanent record and for information to the Director.
